FERPA RELEASE

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. 1232g) protects the privacy of student Education Records. "Education Records" includes records that are directly related to a student and maintained by a school. FERPA grants Parents and Eligible Students certain rights with respect to Education Records. "Parent" means a parent of a student and includes a natural parent, a guardian, or an individual acting as a parent in the absence of a parent or guardian. "Eligible Student" means a student who has reached 18 years of age or attends a school beyond the high school level. FERPA rights transfer from a Parent to a student when the student becomes an Eligible Student.

Generally, under FERPA, a school must have written permission from a Parent or Eligible Student to disclose a student's Education Record. By completing this Consent to Disclose Education Records ("Form"), a Parent or Eligible Student may authorize a school to disclose the student's Education Records to the Gun Lake Tribe ("Band"). The purpose of the disclosure is to permit the Band to monitor the student's progress under various programs offered by the Band. The Parent or Eligible Student may revoke or amend the authorizations contained in this Form at any time, but the request must be through a signed writing delivered to the above school ("School"), but any revocation or amendment may result in the student being ineligible to participate in a Band program.

The Parent or Eligible Student hereby authorizes: (1) the School to release to the Band all of the student's Education Records, including without limitation, grades, test or assessment results, individual education plans, assignments, and attendance and disciplinary reports; (2) the Band to access the student's grades through the school's online grading system; and (3) any learning center or auxiliary tutor ("Service Provider") that provides services to the student under a Band program to release to the Band all such Education Records. The Band will maintain all such Education Records as confidential in accordance with applicable law. A copy of this Form is valid as an original.
